FAQ'S

How far out are you booking?

2-6 weeks. Weekends are much busier than weekdays so if you're available during the week, I can usually schedule to see you within a week.

After we meet for the home consultation, how long until our fitting?

Typically 7-10 days is preferred. I need a min. 7 days in case I need to order online.

How will you know my style and what I want?

After a decade and working with hundreds of clients, I can tell a lot about your style from the way you speak, your style questionnaire before our home consult, current brands/stores you wear and love, your home and of course, your closet.

Lastly, you'll see a visual sneak peek to make sure I'm on the right path.

I want to buy this as a gift, what do I do?

We'll chat on the phone to see the best fit for the recipient but I recommend buying an hour session and you can upgrade afterward (wink).

Where do I buy one hour?

Purchase a one hour style session here.

I'm nervous. What should I do to prep for our home consultation?

Sit back and relax. I swear this is painless and fun! I'm not throwing any clothing at you-I am simply here to take care of you, be your cheerleader, help enhance your existing wardrobe, create new outfits so you have wardrobe you love.

See my Yelp reviews for evidence.

How much do I need to spend on new wardrobe?

Budgets vary but I recommend a budget of $2,000.00 if you plan on purchasing a 20-25 piece collection that mixes and matches.

Client spend, on average, $4500-5,500.00.

How many outfits will I receive from the Ultimate Shop Experience?

Expect to walk away with 20 head-to-toe mix and match outfits.

What if I don't like any of the wardrobe?

You'll receive a completely FREE second session. I mean this- guaranteed happiness. If we're missing one or two things, I'll email you links to purchase but if you're not wowed and happy with the collection, we'll schedule a second fitting.
